The Glenboig Company are the Sole Makers of the "GLENBOIG" and "STAR GLENBOIG" brands, which stand first among Fire Bricks, for the construction of all kinds of furnaces subjected to the highest heats and sudden changes of temperature.

The GLENBOIG COMPANY purchased the Gartcosh Works (which were the closest competitors with Glenboig) for the purpose of meeting the demands of buyers requiring a cheaper Fire Brick of good quality, and they offer this brand with confidence, knowing that it is unsurpassed by any other Fire Brick made in Scotland, excepting "Glenboig" alone.

All articles manufactured by the Company bear one or other of the undernoted Trade Marks—

Purchasers are recommended to see to it that the "brand" is clearly stamped on the goods, as imitation brands and misleading uses of the word "Glenboig" are regularly resorted to by makers of inferior goods.

ORDINARY RATES OF POSTAGE AND CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

*Inland Letters.

1. The rates of postage when prepaid are as follows:—

For a letter not above 3 oz., 2d. For every additional 2 oz., ½d.

2. A letter posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; if insufficiently prepaid, with double the deficiency.

3. No letter may exceed 24 inches in length, 12 inches in width, or 12 inches in depth.

All letters containing instructions to the Postmaster as to the re-direction of letters, should have written on envelope "Re-direction of Letters;" such an intimation will cause the communication to be attended to at once.

* Inland letters, parcels, or other postal packets are those which pass between places in the United Kingdom, including the Isle of Man, the Orkney, Shetland, Scilly, and Channel Islands.

Inland Newspapers.

1. The prepaid rate of postage on copies of publications registered for transmission at the Inland Newspaper Rate, including any supplements thereto, is one penny for every copy not exceeding 6 oz. in weight, with a further charge of one halfpenny for every additional 6 oz.

The rate applies to single copies of newspapers only. If two or more copies are sent in a single packet, each copy will be liable to the same postage as if it had been posted separately. But in no case will a packet of such copies be chargeable with a higher rate than that chargeable on a printed paper of the same weight.

2. A copy or a packet of copies posted unpaid or underpaid is chargeable on delivery with double the deficiency at the newspaper rate.

3. Any publication fulfilling the conditions for registration set forth in the Post Office Guide can upon payment of an annual fee of 5s., be registered at the General Post Office for circulation within the United Kingdom as a newspaper.

4. No packet of newspapers may exceed 2lb. in weight, 2 feet in length, or 1 foot in width or depth.

5. A newspaper must be prepaid either by an adhesive stamp, or by the use of a stamped wrapper.

6. (a) A newspaper must be posted either without a cover, or in a cover entirely open at both ends, and so that the same can be easily removed for the purpose of examination.

(b) A newspaper must be so folded as to admit of the title being readily seen.

(c) A newspaper may not contain any enclosure (except supplements).

(d) A newspaper and the cover of a newspaper may not bear anything except the names, addresses, and descriptions of the sender and the addressee, with index or reference numbers and letters, the words "with compliments," a request for return in case of non-delivery, the title of the newspaper, and a reference to its registration for transmission by post, and a reference to any page of, or place in, the newspaper to which the attention of the addressee is directed.

For any infringement of these regulations newspapers are liable to be surcharged.

Printed Papers.

The prepaid rate is:—Not exceeding 1 oz. in weight, ½d.; exceeding 1 oz. but not exceeding 2 oz in weight, 1d.; exceeding 2 oz. but not exceeding 4 oz. in weight, 1½d.; exceeding 4 oz. but not exceeding 6 oz n weight, 2d.; and so on at the rate of ½d. for every subsequent 2 oz. or fraction of 2 oz. up to 2 lb. The rate for 1 lb. will be 4½d. and for 2 lb. 8½d.

No Printed Paper may exceed 2 oz. in weight. The only limit of size applicable is that applicable to letters.

The heading "Printed Papers" takes the place of "Book Packets" in recent editions. The regulations in force as from the 3rd June, 1918, abolish the Book Rate as reintroduced on the 1st November, 1915, set up a new rate now to be called the "Printed Paper" Rate for packets not exceeding 2 oz., and, as regards packets exceeding that weight, merge the old Book Rate and the new "Printed Paper" Rate in the Letter Rate.

The special conditions under which circulars, invoices, deeds, &c., may be sent as Printed Papers are given on pages 10—11 of the Post Office Guide, which may be obtained at any Post Office.

Samples.

Samples can no longer be sent by Inland Post at any rates other than the Letter and the Parcel Rates.

Post Cards.—Official and Private.

1. Official Post Cards impressed with a penny stamp, and official Reply Post Cards impressed with a penny stamp on each portion of them, can be bought at every Post Office.

2. Nothing may be attached to a post card, except adhesive stamps in payment of additional postage or stamp duty, and a gummed label (not to exceed 2 inches long and ¾ inch wide) bearing the address at which the card is to be delivered; a similar label, bearing the sender's name and address, and engravings, photographs, illustrations, and drawings completely adherent to the card; the card may not be folded, nor may it be cut or altered in such a way as to reduce the size below 4 by 2¾ inches. Stamps in payment of postage must be affixed to the face of the card (i.e., to the side which bears the address). If any of these rules be infringed, the card is treated as a letter liable on delivery to the usual charges.

3. Private Cards prepaid 1d. each and Private Reply Cards with a penny stamp on each half can also be used as Post Cards. They must be composed of ordinary cardboard, not thicker nor thinner than the material used for the Official Post Card. They may not exceed 5½ by 3½ inches in size, or be less than 4 by 2¾ inches. Neither half of a Private Reply Card may exceed the maximum or be less than the minimum size above stated. The rules in the preceding paragraph also apply to Private Post Cards. A Private Post Card posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage.

Certificates of Posting of Unregistered or Uninsured Correspondence (except Parcels).

Proof of the posting of unregistered or uninsured correspondence (except parcels) can be obtained by handing in the article at a Post Office and applying for a certificate of posting. The fee is ½d. For further particulars see Post Office Guide.

INLAND PARCEL POST.

Chief Regulations.

1. In order that a packet may go by Parcel Post, it must be presented at the counter of a Post Office for transmission as a parcel. It must on no account be deposited in a letter box. Parcels may, however, be accepted by Rural Postmen. The words "Parcel Post" should be written or printed on the left-hand side, immediately above the address.

N.B.—The sender's name and address should appear on the cover, or within the parcel.

2. Any packet or parcel marked "Parcel Post," and posted contrary to this regulation, will, unless admissible and fully prepaid at the letter rate, be charged on delivery with a fine of 1d. in addition to any deficient postage at the parcel rate.

3. The rates of postage are:—

For a parcel—	s.	d.
Not exceeding 2 lb. in weight - -	0	9
Exceeding 2 lb. but not exceeding 5 lb.	1	0
„ 5 „ „ 8 „	1	3
„ 8 „ „ 11 „	1	6

No parcel can be sent exceeding 11 lb. in weight.

4. The dimensions allowed for an Inland Postal Parcel are:—

Greatest length - - - - 3 ft. 6 in.
Greatest length and girth combined 6 ft. 0 in.

5. The full postage must be prepaid by means of postage stamps, which must be affixed by the sender.

6. A certificate of the posting of a parcel may be obtained at the time of posting at any Post Office. This certificate must be filled up by the sender and handed to an Officer of the Post Office, who will sign and return it to him.

Parcels addressed to a Post Office to be called for.

7. Parcels may be addressed to and obtained at Post Offices under the same regulations, generally, as letters.

8. Parcels addressed to a Post Office to be called for are kept for two weeks.

9. Parcels may be obtained at a Post Office by persons not residing within a free delivery, or by persons residing within the free delivery, provided there is no immediate delivery by the usual means; but when parcels addressed to a Post Office, for persons residing within the free delivery, arrive by a mail for which there is a delivery from house to house, they are not delivered to callers, but are sent out for delivery in the usual way; except such as are addressed to the military in barracks.

Re-direction of Parcels.

10. Parcels are, when re-directed, liable to additional postage at the prepaid rate for each re-direction, except where both the original address and the substituted address are either served from the same delivery office or are within the same Town Delivery Area, and where re-direction is made within the period of free re-direction allowed for other classes of correspondence. A parcel will not, however, be delivered free of charge to a person who has previously refused to accept it, and for re-direction from a Returned Letter Office a second postage is invariably charged.

Undelivered Parcels.

11. If an undelivered parcel bears on the cover the name and address of the sender it is returned to him at once.

12. If the name and address of the sender are not shown on the cover the parcel is sent to the Returned Letter Office of the District, where it is opened and examined. If it is found to contain the name and address of the sender, it is returned to him. No charge is made for the return of an undelivered parcel to the sender.

13. Undelivered parcels which cannot be returned to the senders, and are not applied for, are liable to be disposed of three months after the date of arrival at the Returned Letter Office. Perishable parcels will be dealt with as may be requisite.

Compensation for Loss or Damage.

14. The Postmaster General is not legally liable to make good any claim arising out of the conveyance of a parcel sent by post.

15. Nevertheless, if the parcel is registered, compensation will be given subject to the exceptions (including money) and conditions specified under the heading of "Compensation for Loss or Damage" in the Post Office Guide.

16. If the parcel is not registered, the Postmaster General will, subject to certain conditions, accept liability up to £2 without payment of any fee beyond the postage.

17. To secure compensation for loss a certificate of posting must be obtained at the time of posting.

Postage Stamps, &c.

At Money Order Offices the following are kept for sale to the public—viz., postage stamps, which are also available for the prepayment of telegrams, of the respective values of ½d., 1d., 1½d., 2d., 2½d., 3d., 4d., 5d., 6d., 9d., 10d., 1s., 2s. 6d., 5s., and 10s. Paper taken by the public to the Inland Revenue Office, Somerset House, London, W.C., can be impressed with postage stamps under conditions which may be learnt on application at that office. Application should also be made there, or to District Stamp Distributors, for allowance on spoilt stamps, &c.

Prepayment in Money.

The prepayment of Inland letters, post cards, printed papers, and parcels can, as a rule, only be effected by means of postage stamps.

In London, Edinburgh, Dublin, and Glasgow, however, and a few large provincial towns, prepayment can be made in money under certain conditions, which can be learnt on application at the offices, or from the Post Office Guide. Newspapers cannot be prepaid in money.

For a list of the Companies and further particulars, see the current edition of the Post Office Guide.

N.B.—Save in the case of a letter exempted from the exclusive privilege of the Postmaster General (see Post Office Guide), no letter can legally be sent by Railway otherwise than in His Majesty's Mails, or in the manner above described. Any person who sends or conveys or causes to be sent or conveyed otherwise than by the Post a letter not so exempted, or any person who performs, otherwise than by the Post, any services incidental to the conveying of letters from place to place, is liable by statute to heavy penalties.

Re-direction.

1. No charge is made for the re-direction of letters, post cards, newspapers, and printed papers, whether registered or not, and whether re-directed by an officer of the Post Office or by an agent of the addressee after delivery, provided in the latter case that they are re-posted not later than the day (Sundays and public holidays not being counted) after delivery, and that they do not appear to have been opened, or tampered with.

2. Re-directed letters, &c., which are re-posted later than the day after delivery will be liable to charge at the prepaid rate; any which appear to have been opened or tampered with will be charged as freshly posted unpaid letters or packets.

3. Parcels are, when re-directed, liable to additional postage at the prepaid rate for each re-direction, except where the original and corrected addresses are both within a delivery for the same Post Office.

4. If any registered letter or packet, when re-directed, instead of being taken back to the Post Office to be dealt with as registered, is dropped into the letter box as an ordinary letter or packet (the word "registered" not having been erased, or having been erased in pencil only), it becomes liable to the same treatment as any other letter or packet which is marked registered and found in the letter box; and must be surcharged with a registration fee of 4d., minus the value of any stamps already affixed for the registration.

5. Notices of removal and applications for letters, &c., to be re-directed, must in all cases be duly signed by the persons to whom the letters are addressed. Printed forms can be obtained from the local Postmaster, and in London at any District or Branch Office, or from the postman of the walk; and, when filled up and signed, they should be given to the Postmaster or to the postman; but it is desirable, for the prevention of mistakes, that persons who are about to change their residence should inform their correspondents beforehand of their intention, so that their letters may be directed in the first instance to their new address. The Post Office does not undertake to provide for the re-direction of letters, printed papers, post cards, and newspapers for a longer period than twelve months from the date of removal, but it is open to any person, after his correspondence has been re-directed for that time, to apply for an extension of the privilege on prepayment of a fee of 1s. a year for the second and third years. For continuing official re-direction after three years from the change of address an annual fee of 5s. is payable. A separate notice should be filled up if it is desired that parcels may be re-directed.

6. The Post Office does not undertake the re-direction of letters, &c., for a person temporarily leaving home, unless the house be left uninhabited, nor does it undertake to re-direct letters addressed to hotels, boarding houses, or lodgings, or addressed to any premises occupied by two or more persons where the letters are delivered by postman into a common letter-box or to a common agent. When business premises are temporarily left unoccupied—as, for example, during a "wake" or other local holiday—re-direction is only undertaken on payment of a fee of 5s. for each period.

Delivery of Letters, &c.

1. All Postmen are prohibited from distributing any letters, parcels, &c., except such as have passed through a Post Office; and from receiving any payment beyond the postage for the delivery or collection of letters, &c.

Special Delivery of Correspondence.

To Residents in Towns.

On ordinary week-days, and on Bank Holidays in England and Ireland, and on the equivalent Local Holidays in Scotland, correspondence for persons residing within a town-delivery area will only be delivered free at the Post Office to Private Box holders and persons entitled to use the Poste Restante. Other persons desiring to obtain correspondence addressed to them must in each case pay a special fee of 3d.; and this fee must be paid for the search (which will only be made if the correspondence for delivery is readily accessible at the time) whether correspondence be found or not. Registered Correspondence, including parcels, may be retained at the Post Office to be called for once daily on payment of a fee of 15s. a year, or 30s. a year for calling more than once.

Residents in Towns may also obtain correspondence without charge on any occasion (a) when a delivery by postman is regularly suspended on a local half-holiday, or (b) when a delivery to callers is duly sanctioned and publicly announced.

Poste Restante.

All Inland Letters, &c., addressed to a Poste Restante to be called for are retained for one fortnight—foreign letters, two months—unless they bear a request for their return within a specified time, which may not exceed the periods mentioned above. If not called for by the end of that time, they are sent to the Returned Letter Office for disposal. But if a letter be addressed to a Post Office at a seaport town for a person on board a ship, expected to arrive at that port, it is kept two months.

In London there is a Poste Restante at the General Post Office, E.C., and at all Branch Offices.

In the Province the Post Restante is at the Head Post Offices, and, in some cases, at the Branch Post Offices also.

Undelivered Correspondence.

An undelivered inland postal packet which is chargeable with a postage of 2d. or more, whether a letter, newspaper or parcel, if it bears on the outside the full name and address of the sender, is returned direct and unopened. Any other such undelivered packet is opened by an officer deputed for the purpose; and if it contains the sender's address it is returned to him. An undelivered postal packet, other than a parcel, which cannot be returned to the sender and does not contain any enclosure of importance, is destroyed.

Undelivered parcels which do not contain the address of the sender and are not applied for are liable to be disposed of after three months. Parcels containing perishable articles will be dealt with as may be requisite.

Any letter or packet which, on being opened, is found to contain articles above a certain value is, for its safety, recorded and returned registered, and unless registered at the time of posting, the registration fee of 2d. is charged on the sender. Letters from abroad are returned unopened to the country of origin, after a brief detention in the Returned Letter Office. Where the name and address of the sender are shown on the outside, the letter is returned on day of receipt in Returned Letter Office.

Undelivered post cards, printed papers, and newspapers, chargeable with a postage not exceeding three halfpence, are dealt with as follows:—

(1) Those bearing on the outside the name and address of the sender, with a request for their return in case of non-delivery, are sent back direct from the office of destination, and are delivered to the sender on payment of a second postage.

(2) Those not bearing on the outside the name and address of the sender, with a request for their return in case of non-delivery, are destroyed.

Articles not allowed to be sent by Post.

Anything indecent, or explosive, or dangerous or any living Creature.

1. No indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, engraving, book, card, or any article having thereon or on the cover thereof, any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, or grossly offensive character, may be sent by Post at all, nor any explosive, dangerous, or noxious substance, nor any living creature (live bees alone excepted), nor anything likely to injure the contents of the Mails or any officer of the Post Office. If any such postal packet be tendered for transmission, it is refused, or, if detected in transit, it is detained. The contents of any such packet are liable to be disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster General may direct, and the sender of it is liable to prosecution by the Department.

The transmission by post of any postal packet containing

(a) any advertisement or ticket relating to a lottery at home or abroad; or

(b) any advertisement issued by or on behalf of any person at home or abroad offering to tell fortunes; or

(c) any advertisement of a Betting House at home or abroad; or

(d) any advertisement relating to the treatment of venereal disease, or to any preparation for its prevention, cure, or relief; or

(e) any advertisement, circular, or coupon of any ready-money football betting business at home or abroad is also prohibited.

EXPRESS DELIVERY OF LETTERS AND PARCELS.

Postal Packets, Letters, and Parcels, are delivered by Express Messenger under the following Services, viz.:—

SERVICE I.

Local. Express Throughout.

Under this Service, Messages, Letters, Parcels, and other articles are conveyed the entire distance by Special Messenger.

Charges.

For a Letter, Packet, or other Article, the Express Fee (inclusive of charges for omnibus, tramcar, railway, &c.) is

For every mile or part of a mile, - 6d.

On each Packet weighing more than 1 lb., a weight fee of 3d. is charged.

(Ordinary postage is not charged.)

In the Provinces they are accepted at all Post Offices from which there is a delivery of Telegrams, and are delivered in any part of the Town or Rural District, or in any neighbouring town or village, provided such place can be easily reached by messenger by means of public conveyance or otherwise.

SERVICE II.

Express Delivery of Letters, &c., after Transmission by Post.

Under this Service, Letters and Parcels are forwarded by Mail in the regular course of post, and on arrival at the office of delivery, are sent out by Express Messenger.

Fees.

In addition to the full ordinary postage, the Express fee is:—

For every mile or part of a mile from the office of delivery, - - 6d.

SERVICE III.

Special Delivery of Letters, &c., in advance of the ordinary Deliveries by Postmen.

Persons or Firms who desire at any time to receive their letters, or other postal packets of any kind, in advance of the ordinary delivery, may have them delivered by special Messenger on payment of the following fees:—

The full Express fee of 6d. a mile as for one packet, and one penny for every 10, or less number, of additional packets beyond the first. If the letters or parcels have to be searched for at more than one delivery, a charge of 3d. is made for each extra search in addition to the Express fees levied when the special delivery takes place.

Applications for such special delivery must be signed by the person or firm to which the letters or postal packets in question are addressed. Forms of application may be obtained at any Post Office from which letters, &c., are delivered, and also from the more important Town Branch and Sub-Offices.

The applications should be addressed to the Postmaster or "Chief Officer on duty" at the Post Office from which the letters are ordinarily delivered. Where possible, it should be delivered at the Office by hand; but where this cannot be done it may be handed in at any Post Office or posted in any Letter Box in the District served from the office. In the latter case the postage should be prepaid by means of a penny stamp affixed to the outside of the form. Care should be taken, however, that the application reaches the Office on the previous evening, if it is intended to apply to the early delivery in the morning, and, if to other deliveries during the day, an hour at least before the time at which the delivery by Postmen commences.

The Express Fee on at least one packet must be prepaid in stamps affixed to the application. All additional fees must be paid to the Special Messenger on delivery.

If no letters, &c., for the address given are found, a special Messenger will be sent to inform the applicant to that effect, and the Express Fee will be retained to pay for this service.

In cases where a regular delivery by Special Messenger is required, either on one or more days of the week, or of letters, &c., arriving by particular Inland or Foreign Mails, it will be sufficient if only one Form of Application, altered to meet the requirements, is filled up and left with the Postmaster. In such cases the whole of the charges will be collected on the delivery of the Postal Packets.

SERVICE IV.

By Special Messenger after transmission by Telephone.

Any subscriber to a Telephone Exchange may telephone messages to many Post Offices which can be reached through the local Exchange system, or by means of the Post Office Trunk wires, in order that the messages may be written down and dealt with as express letters or ordinary letters. Similarly the public may dictate letters from many telephone Call Offices where Trunk Calls are accepted. The Express Delivery Service is available only during the hours of telegraph business, and is not available on Sundays at any place outside the London Postal District. For further particulars see P.O. Guide.

MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS.

1. The larger Provincial Post Offices in town and country are, where practicable, open for every kind of business from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m., except on Public Holidays; but in present conditions many offices are not open before 9 a.m. nor after 7 p.m., and many are closed for an hour or more in the middle of the day. Further restrictions in the hours of public business are in force at certain Sub-Offices where Telegraph business is not transacted. The hours during which an office is open and the class of counter business transacted can be ascertained by reference to the local window notice.

2. In all offices, whether Head or Country Sub-Offices, which are open to the Public for a longer period, viz., from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m., the sale of postage stamps, registration of letters, &c., and acceptance of parcels, is continued during all the hours in which they are so open; unless the offices are open for telegraph business only, in which case the sale of postage stamps only is continued. Town Sub-Offices are open to the Public from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. In those places, however, where one afternoon in the week is observed as a half-holiday, Town Sub-Offices are in many cases closed early.

3. In all Money Order Offices, and in most of the smaller Post Offices which are not Money Order Offices, postal orders are sold and paid during all the hours in which such offices are open, but no postal order can be sold or paid before 7 a.m. or after 10 p.m.

4. The Post Office is not, by law, responsible for any loss or inconvenience which may arise from the non-delivery, mis-sending, or mis-delivery of any letter or other postal packet, nor from any injury which a packet may sustain during its transmission.*

5. No letter or other packet once posted can be withheld from despatch or delivery at the request of the Sender.

6. Postmasters are not bound to give change, nor are they authorised to demand change; and when money is paid at a Post Office, no question as to its right amount, goodness, or weight can be entertained after it has been removed from the counter.

7. Postmasters are not bound to weigh any letters or other packets for the public.

N.B.—The above Table does not apply during existing conditions, or to parcels, which occupy some considerable time longer, according to distance and requirements of Customs regulations.

5. To a few countries exceptional conditions apply, such as compulsory prepayment of postage, the collection of an additional charge on delivery, or the absence of arrangements for the complete or even partial registration of letters. (For particulars see P.O. Guide.)

Advice of Delivery of Registered or Insured Correspondence.

The sender of registered or insured correspondence addressed to any Foreign Country or British Colony in the Postal Union (or of an insured parcel addressed to any place marked ‡ in the Table of Rates shown in Post Office Guide), may obtain an advice of its delivery on application at the office of posting, either at the time of posting or subsequently. The fee is 2½d., which must be paid on application by stamps affixed by the sender to a form provided for the purpose. Inquiry as to the alleged loss or non-delivery of a registered or insured packet or insured parcel should also be accompanied by a fee of 2½d., and should, if possible, be made upon the form used in applying for an advice of delivery. If it is found that the postal service is in fault, the inquiry fee will be refunded.

Post Cards.

6. Official Post Cards, single and reply, are transmissible to all parts of the world. Single Cards are issued with impressed stamps of 1d., and Reply Cards with impressed stamps of the value of 1d. on each half.

Inland Post Cards are also transmissible abroad if the additional postage required is supplied by means of postage stamps affixed to the cards.

7. Private Post Cards, bearing adhesive stamps of the value of one penny, and private reply cards with adhesive stamps of the value of one penny on each half, may be sent as post cards to places abroad, provided that they are in conformity with the official post cards. They must be of the same size and substance as the official cards.

Samples.

The use of the Sample Post to and from Foreign Countries and the Colonies is intended to be restricted to (a) bona fide trade samples of merchandise without saleable value, and (b) natural history specimens, dried or preserved animals and plants, geological specimens and scientific specimens generally, when sent for non-commercial purpose. Packets containing goods for sale, or consigned in execution of an order (however small the quantity), or articles sent by one private individual to another, which are not actually trade samples or scientific specimens cannot be forwarded by Sample Post.

The limit of weight for samples for British Colonies or Possessions, or for non-Union countries, is 5 lb., but for foreign countries in the Postal Union the limit is 12 ounces.

A packet of samples sent to any British Colony or Possession or non-Union country must not exceed 2 feet in length by 1 foot in width or depth, but to any foreign place comprised in the Postal Union a packet must not exceed 12 inches in length, 8 in width, or 4 in depth, unless it be in the form of a roll in which case the limit of size is 12 inches in length and 6 inches in diameter.

Postage—1d. for the first 4 oz. and 1d. per 2 oz. for heavier weights.

Letters, &c., by Private Ships.

Letters intended to be sent by Private Ship must be addressed "By Private Ship;" and if by a particular vessel, the name of the ship must be added.

The Postage and conditions of transmission of letters, &c., by a Private Ship are the same as by Mail Packet.

Foreign Parcel Post and Cash on Delivery System.

For particulars of these services see Post Office Guide, which may be consulted at any Post Office.

Re-direction.

1. The principle of free re-direction, which is adopted throughout the Postal Union for letters, post cards, commercial papers, printed papers, and sample packets, does not exempt from additional postage letters, &c., which though fully prepaid for the first transmission, are re-directed to a country to which the postage is higher than that originally prepaid. Thus a letter or packet prepaid at the inland rate, sent from one place to another in the United Kingdom, and afterwards re-directed to a place abroad, should have additional stamps affixed to it representing the difference between the inland and the foreign rate of postage, otherwise the difference will be charged on delivery. The same treatment would be adopted with a letter or packet fully prepaid for the inland service of a foreign Country or Colony and re-directed to the United Kingdom. But a fully paid letter or packet coming here from abroad, and re-directed under the conditions specified in paragraph 2, would not be chargeable for re-direction unless the postage from the place of origin to the final destination were higher than the postage from the place of origin to this Country. Letters originally posted unpaid, and letters or packets posted insufficiently paid, and subsequently re-directed, though not chargeable for re-direction, are subject to the ordinary charge of double the deficient postage on delivery.

2. Letters, &c., re-directed after delivery at the first address must be reposted not later than the day (Sundays and public holidays not being counted) after delivery.

MONEY ORDERS.

Inland.

At every Money Order Office Money Orders can be obtained between the hours of 8 a.m. and 8 p.m. The commission for these Orders is:—

For sums not exceeding £3					-	4d.
,,	above £3	and not exceeding		£10	-	6d.
,,	,, £10	,,	,,	£20	-	8d.
,,	,, £20	,,	,,	£30	-	10d.
,,	,, £30	,,	,,	£40	-	1s.

No single Inland Money Order can be issued for more than £40.

Forms of application for Money Orders are supplied gratuitously at every Money Order Office.

A Money Order may be crossed like a cheque for payment through a Bank.

Payment of an Order may be deferred for any period not exceeding ten days after date. The remitter should fill up and sign the request to this effect at the foot of the Order and inform the Postmaster at the time of issue.

Foreign and Colonial.

Money can be sent by means of Foreign or Colonial Money Orders to almost all our Colonies and Protectorates, or to any of the Allied Countries or their Colonies.

The commission for these Orders is:—3d. for every £1 or fraction of £1, maximum £40.

For Orders payable in all Foreign Countries or their Colonies, 4d. for every £1 or fraction of £1.

When, in order to catch an earlier mail to a place abroad, the remitter desires the particulars to be advised to the Money Order Department, London, by telegraph, instead of by post, a supplementary fee of 6d. will be charged for each Order in addition to the ordinary Poundage and the cost of the Telegram of Advice.

TELEGRAPH MONEY ORDERS.

By the use of not more than three stamps affixed to the face of the Order any broken amount, not exceeding 5d., may be made up. Odd half-pence will not be paid. Perforated stamps cannot be accepted for the purpose.

The person who sends one of these Orders must fill in the name of the person to whom it is sent, and, if he so wishes, he can also fill in the name of any particular Money Order Office, and the Order will be cashed at that Office and no other. The insertion of the name of the paying office affords a safeguard against payment being made to a wrong person. No Postal Order will be paid, even though presented for payment by a Banker, unless the name of the Payee be inserted in the body of the Order.

These Orders should be cashed within three months of the last day of the month in which they are issued. Thus, if an Order is bought in the middle of January it should be cashed before the 1st of May; if this is not done, it can only be cashed on payment of a fresh poundage. If an Order is presented for payment more than six months after the month of issue it cannot be cashed until reference has been made to the Money Order Department, London.

Payment of a Postal Order cannot be deferred.

The sender of a Postal Order can obtain repayment of the amount (but not the poundage) on presenting the Order and the Counterfoil at the issuing Office. If the Order has been crossed for payment through a bank the sender must first cancel the crossing by writing across the face of the Order the words "Please pay cash," and adding his initials.

Every person to whom a Postal Order is issued should detach and keep the counterfoil. Its production will be necessary if the Order should be lost.

The Postmaster General cannot undertake to consider any application respecting a Postal Order which has miscarried, or which has been lost or destroyed, unless the counterfoil be produced, and unless proof be given to his satisfaction that the name of the payee was inserted in the Order before the holder parted with it.

After a Postal Order has once been paid, to whomsoever it is paid, the Postmaster General will not be liable to any further claim.

TELEGRAPHS.

Inland.

Charges.—The charge for the first 12 words is 1s.; every additional word, 1d.

Telegrams handed in on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day will be charged 6d. extra.

Forms with embossed stamps can be obtained singly or in books of 20, interleaved with a sheet of carbonic paper, price 20s. 3d. per book.

Every word telegraphed is charged for, whether in the addresses or text.

Groups of figures are counted at the rate of five figures to a word.

Prepaid Replies.

The cost of a reply not exceeding forty-eight words may be prepaid, and a reply form will then be delivered to the addressee, who may send his reply from any Telegraph Office or use the form to prepay any message within twelve months. If the form be not used, the value of it will at any time within twelve months be refunded to the sender of the original telegram if he applies and sends the form to the local Postmaster.

Reply Telegrams handed in on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day will be charged 6d. extra unless this amount has been prepaid by the sender of the original telegram, in which event the reply form will be marked on the back "Sunday Rate Prepaid."

Corrected Addresses.

Should the sender of a telegram, upon being informed that his message cannot be delivered in consequence of the addressee being unknown, furnish a correct address or require the telegram to be presented a second time at the original address, he must pay a further fee of 1s. If, however, the new address is in another town, or, in the case of London, in another postal district, the cost of a fresh telegram must be paid.

Repetition.

If the receiver of a telegram doubts its accuracy, he may have it repeated by depositing half the amount paid for its transmission to him. The money will, however, be refunded to him if it should be found that the telegram has been inaccurately transmitted. The sender may also have a telegram repeated back from office to office on payment of an additional half rate at the time of handing in, but in this case no copy of the repetition is given to sender.

Delivery.

The amount paid for transmission covers the cost of delivery up to three miles from the terminal office, or within the town postal delivery of the terminal office, if a Head Office, when that delivery extends beyond three miles. When the addressee resides beyond the free delivery, porterage is charged at the rate of 6d. per mile or part of a mile, reckoning from the limit of the free delivery.

Re-direction.

A fee of one shilling is charged for recording a change of address for one week, 2s. 6d. for a month, and £1 1s. a year, but the record may be cancelled and the original address resumed without further charge.

Multiple Addresses.

A telegram will be delivered at two or more addresses in the same free delivery on prepayment of the ordinary telegram charges for the total number of words in the addresses and text in addition to a charge of fourpence for every copy beyond the first. Each London Postal District is regarded for this purpose as forming a separate delivery, and when a multiple address telegram for London contains one or more registered addresses, the District initials must be inserted after each registered address, and be paid for.

Abbreviated Addresses.

Any person may register an abbreviated or arbitrary address on payment of a fee of two pounds per annum. Application for such addresses should be made to the Chief Office.

If telegrams bearing a registered address are to be re-directed as well as fully addressed telegrams, a second fee of one shilling must be paid.

RADIOTELEGRAMS.

To and from ships at sea.

Private radiotelegrams can be accepted for transmission to or from ships through certain Coast Stations in the United Kingdom, and also through Coast Stations abroad, so far as these are available. For full particulars see Post Office Guide.

FOREIGN AND COLONIAL TELEGRAMS

PLAIN LANGUAGE; CODE LANGUAGE; CYPHER.

Telegrams are accepted without restriction to most places abroad. A few countries still maintain restrictions, of which particulars may be obtained at any Post Office.

In plain language the length allowed for a single word is 15 letters, additional letters being charged for at the rate of 15 letters to the word.

In code language no word must exceed ten letters in length. Words in plain language in the text of a telegram which also contains words in code language are charged for at the rate of 10 letters to a word, any excess being charged for at the rate of 10 letters to a word.

Combinations in plain language or code, formed by running together two or more real words (whole or contracted), or a real word and some other expression, are prohibited.

A reply of any length may be prepaid, but the minimum payment is 10d. The amount paid for a reply is refunded to the sender of the original telegram if no reply is sent, provided that application is made within three months. If the addressee does not use the reply form of a telegram, the cost of the reply will be returned to the sender on application to the Secretary, General Post Office, within three months of the date of issue of the form. The form must be returned with the application.

The sender can have his telegram repeated from office to office throughout the whole course of its transmission by paying over and above the charge for the original transmission a quarter of that charge, the expression "TC" being inserted immediately before the receiver's address.

The receiver of a telegram can obtain the correction of passages which are doubtful, by paying a sum calculated by multiplying the number of words to be repeated by the rate per word to the place from which repetition is to be obtained. The minimum charge is 10d. The amount is refunded if the telegram has been inaccurately transmitted.

If the repetition shows that the repeated words were not all inaccurately transmitted in the first instance, a proportionate part only of the amount paid for repetition will be refunded.

A telegram can be forwarded partly by telegraph and partly by post. Thus a telegram intended, say, for India, can be telegraphed to Marseilles to catch the outgoing mail, and thence forwarded by post to its destination. In addition to the cost of the telegram to the place of posting, a charge of 2½d. is collected from the sender if the telegram is to be posted from one country to another, but no charge is made for postage if the telegram is to be posted from one place to another in the same country. If the telegram is to be posted as a registered letter, a registration fee of 2½d. is charged in addition to the charge for postage (if any).

The sender should write the word "Poste" before the addressee's name, the name of the terminal telegraph office being written last in the address. For example: "Poste Smith 10 Broad Street Calcutta Marseilles." The word "Poste" is charged for as a part of the telegram. Registered abbreviated addresses cannot be used.

PRIVATE TELEGRAPHS.

1. The Postmaster-General undertakes the construction and maintenance, on rental terms, of private telegraph and telephone lines. Such lines may be between the offices or houses of firms or private individuals, or between such offices or houses and Postal Telegraph Offices. By means of such lines the renter can send and receive telegrams, forward messages for delivery as express or ordinary letters, or obtain the services of express messengers in the manner described above.

2. The Department also undertakes to supply Greenwich mean time by electric current at either 10 a.m. or 1 p.m.

3. All applications or communications in regard to private wires or time signals in the Provinces should be addressed to the District Managers of the Telephone Service, and in London to the Controller, London Telephone Service.

The Postmaster-General is not liable for any losses sustained or expenses incurred in consequence of the inaccurate transmission, delay or non-delivery of a telegram.

TRUNK TELEPHONE LINES.

Communication by Telephone has been established between Glasgow and the more important towns in the United Kingdom.

The scale of charges for 3 minutes' conversation is as follows:—

For distances not exceeding 25 miles	4d.
„ exceeding 25 miles and not exceeding 50 miles	8d.
„ „ 50 „ „ „ 75 „	1s. 0d.
„ „ 75 „ „ „ 100 „	1s. 4d.
For every additional 40 miles or fraction thereof	8d.

The period of conversation for a single fee is limited to three minutes, but any person may secure the uninterrupted use of a Trunk line for six minutes by prepaying a double fee, up to 7 p.m. The charge for a six minutes' conversation between 7 p.m. and 7 a.m. is the same as for a conversation of three minutes' duration in the day time. During the same period, for a three minutes' conversation, for which the day charge is 1s., a reduced fee of 8d. is charged, and half the usual day charge is made where the ordinary fee is 1s. 4d., or more.

Special rates are charged where Submarine lines are used.

(a) income from any such securities, stocks, shares or rents, on which Income Tax has been paid under this section; or

(b) income from any such securities, stocks, shares, or rents which was paid or became due before the 6th day of April, 1914.

Where, however, the assessment is not signed and allowed till after the said 1st day of July this provision shall not have effect, and the duties shall be due and payable as formerly. The cases to which this provision applies are Income Tax charged on any individual or firm under No. I. or II. of Schedule A or under Schedule B in respect of lands occupied for husbandry only, and Income Tax charged on any individual or firm under Schedule D or the rules thereof in respect of the profits or gains of any trade manufacture, adventure, or concern in the nature of trade or of any profession or vocation, and Income Tax charged on any individual in respect of any office or employment, whether under Schedule D or E, except individuals whose Income Tax is deducted at definite intervals of less than half a year and weekly wage-earners whose tax is assessed and charged quarterly.

No carriage will be licensed unless it be provided with Lamps, and have Roof, Springs, Wheels, Cushions, Linings, Panels, Doors, and Windows clean and in good Repair, and the Steps of entry safe and convenient, and that Skin, Rope, or Coir Mats, or other matting equally comfortable, are provided for Passengers' feet.

Licensee's Name to be Painted on Carriage.

The name of the Licensee of each Carriage, and the number of such Carriage, shall be painted in straight line on the outside of each door, immediately under the window, in Roman Letters not less than one inch in height, and of proportionate breadth, in a colour conspicuously different from that of the Carriage, and be continued legible during all the time the Carriage shall ply or be used for hire.

The Licenses shall be numbered consecutively, in the order in which the same shall have been registered; and each Licensee, at the time of receiving his License, shall be furnished with a Duplicate of such License, signed by the Registrar.

When Carriages cease to ply.

Whenever a Licensed Carriage ceases to ply, the Proprietor thereof shall give intimation immediately to the Registrar, Central Police Buildings, and shall return the License to him, and the License will then lapse and become null and void, if it has not already done so by expiration or suspension or revocation; and such Carriage shall not again be used as a Licensed Hackney Carriage until it has been relicensed.

Carriages to be in readiness.

The Owner of each Licensed Carriage shall, whenever required by the Chief Constable, have the same ready for hire at one of the Public Stands from Nine o'clock in the morning until Eleven o'clock at night, unless when engaged. SUPPLEMENTARY BYE-LAWS FOR THE REGULATION OF HACKNEY (MOTOR) CARRIAGES AND THE DRIVERS THEREOF IN THE CITY OF GLASGOW.

By virtue and in terms of powers conferred on them by the Glasgow Police Act, 1866, the Magistrates Committee appointed by and acting under the Glasgow Police Acts, 1866 to 1909, hereby make and enact the following Supplementary Bye-Laws for the regulation of motor hackney carriages within the boundaries of the City of Glasgow, and the conduct of the proprietors and drivers thereof, and ordain said Bye-Laws to be strictly observed and enforced from and after the date of their being approved and confirmed by the Sheriff of Lanarkshire, in terms of said Statute, and until expressly altered.

CARRIAGES.

1. Proprietors of carriages propelled by mechanical means shall furnish a Certificate from a responsible firm of Engineers that each carriage submitted for licensing is, so far as the mechanism is concerned, fit for public use.

2. The licence shall not be granted, or afterwards renewed, unless the carriage shall have been examined and approved by the Magistrates Committee, the Chief Constable, the Registrar of Police, the Inspector of Hackney Carriages, or a person or persons authorised by said Committee.

3. All motor carriages shall comply with the requirements of the Locomotives on Highways Act, 1896 (59 and 60 Vict., Cap. 36), and of the Regulations of the Secretary for Scotland made in pursuance thereof.

4. Every carriage shall, before being licensed, be provided with lamps, and have roof, springs, wheels, cushions, lining, panels, doors, windows, and appointments perfectly clean and in perfect order and repair; the paint and varnish bright and in good condition; the steps of entry safe and convenient, and shall also have skin, rope, or coir mats, or other matting equally comfortable, for passengers' feet. Any such carriage, after being licensed, shall be kept in such like good order and repair and cleanliness.

5. The name of the licensee of each carriage shall be painted in a conspicuous place on the carriage in Roman letters not less than one inch in height and of proportionate breadth, in a colour conspicuously different from the ground colour, and shall be continued clearly legible during the currency of the licence.

6. Two plates, on which is inscribed the number of each carriage (such number being the number assigned to it as a motor car in pursuance of Section 2 of the Motor Car Act, 1903), which must conform as to lettering, numbering, and otherwise with the Regulations for the time being made under the said Motor Car Act, 1903, by the Secretary for Scotland, shall be securely fixed, one on the front of, and the other on the back of the carriage, in such positions as the Magistrates Committee or person authorised by them may direct, and every letter or figure on the plates shall be in an upright position and easily distinguishable, in the case of the plate placed in front of the carriage from in front of the carriage, and in the case of the plate placed on the back of the carriage from behind the carriage, and such letters and figures shall be kept legible and easily distinguishable, and shall not be concealed in any manner of way.

Designs, painted or otherwise, shown upon the carriage, may, with the approval of the Magistrates Committee, be used instead of plates, and any reference to plates in these Bye-Laws shall be construed to include a reference to such designs.

7. A lamp shall be placed on the back of the carriage, and shall be of such dimensions and so contrived as to illuminate, by means of reflection, transparency, or otherwise, and render clearly and easily distinguishable every letter or figure on the identification or number plate on the back of the carriage.

8. A metal plate bearing the number which is to distinguish the carriage, and hereinafter called the "Number Plate," as also a plate or printed card in a slip-in frame (called the Fare Plate or Card), setting forth in distinct figures and lettering such particulars as to fares as are to be set forth on the obverse side of the ticket required to be delivered by the driver to the hirer, shall be affixed in a conspicuous position inside the carriage, and shall be kept clearly legible and easily distinguishable, and not concealed in any manner of way.

9. A horn or gong, or other approved means of giving due warning of the approach of the vehicle, shall be provided and securely fixed on some part of the carriage close to, and within easy reach of, the driver.

10. Every carriage shall be fitted with a check-string, bell, or whistle, or other approved means of communication between the passenger and driver.

11. Provision shall be made on every carriage for the conveyance of luggage not exceeding 112 lb.

12. A suitable appliance for extinguishing fire shall be carried with each vehicle, to be readily available in case of emergency.

13. Every taximeter or distance recorder affixed to a carriage shall conform to any regulations which may from time to time be issued by the said Magistrates Committee.

14. Every taximeter shall have holes or lugs on each side, so that a wire can be passed through and sealed, or shall be fitted with other approved means of effectually sealing up the case containing the working parts.

When the gear which operates the distance recorder is not enclosed in the main part of the machine, the case or cover of the same shall be made so that it may be sealed in a similar manner.

15. The licensee shall give a guarantee that each taximeter instrument affixed to each carriage (giving its number) has been carefully examined and tested, and will give correct readings if a certain size of road wheel and driving pinion are used.

16. The measurement of the diameter or circumference of the road wheel by which the taximeter is driven, as also the number of teeth on the driving pinion, shall be clearly stencilled on the body of each instrument, or on a suitable plate provided near to the instrument. These figures shall be open for inspection by the Hackney Carriage Inspector appointed by the said Magistrates Committee, or by any Constable in uniform.

17. No taximeter or distance recorder, except such as has been tested and approved by the Registrar of Police, the Hackney Carriage Inspector, or other person authorised by the Magistrates Committee to test such instruments, shall be affixed to and used on any carriage.

18. Taximeters shall only be fitted in such positions, and in such manner as may be approved by the Magistrates Committee, the Chief Constable, the Registrar of Police, the Hackney Carriage Inspector, or a person authorised to examine and test such instruments.

19. Each taximeter instrument shall be stamped or sealed by, or under authority of, the Magistrates Committee, after trial and approval, as to distance and time. This stamp or seal shall not be broken until intimation has been given to the Registrar of Police. Should the seal be broken, the instrument shall be re-tested and passed before being again used.

20. No taximeter instrument shall at any time be affixed to a carriage without the Registrar of Police being forthwith advised of the particulars of such affixing.

21. No taximeter instrument which is, or has become, in any way defective, shall be used upon a carriage, and upon service by the Registrar of Police of a notice "not to use," the taximeter shall be at once removed, or the carriage fitted with it shall be immediately withdrawn.

22. A proprietor, upon ceasing to use a taximeter, shall intimate the same in writing to the Registrar of Police.

23. A taximeter shall in no circumstances be used upon a carriage in connection with a wheel of diameter different from that for which the taximeter has been designed, geared, and tested.

24. No taximeter shall be used for a longer period than six months without re-testing.

25. Every taximeter shall, during the period between one hour after sunset and one hour before sunrise, be illuminated in such a way as to render clearly distinguishable and easily read every letter and figure thereon.

DRIVERS.

26. Every driver of a motor hackney carriage shall, on all occasions, be careful to observe the proper rules for driving, provided that when passing a tramway car or any other vehicle which runs on fixed rails he may pass on either side of such car or other vehicle. At a Tramway stopping place he shall draw up until the roadway is clear of passengers entering or leaving a tramway car.

27. Every driver shall, when about to alter speed or direction, give clear and sufficient indication of his intention to do so, and shall be careful to prevent danger, obstruction, annoyance, or inconvenience, and shall drive slowly and cautiously in crowded thoroughfares, and when turning from one street into another, and passing over busy crossings.

28. Every driver shall, by sounding the horn or gong or other instrument, give audible and sufficient warning of the approach or position of the motor carriage.

29. No driver shall conceal, or remove, or deface, or alter, or cause, or permit to be concealed, removed, defaced, or altered, any name or number or lettering on the carriage or on any plates thereon, or on the taximeter instrument.

30. Every driver shall keep all the carriage lamps clean and well lighted at all times during the period between one hour after sunset and one hour before sunrise, and in like manner shall keep clearly illuminated the taximeter affixed to the carriage, so that every letter and figure thereon shall be clearly distinguishable and easily read.

31. Under no other circumstances than those provided for in Section 235 of the Glasgow Police Act, 1866, shall a driver allow any person to ride beside him.

32. No driver shall permit or allow any person to stand or loiter beside or near the carriage, or permit or allow any person to sound the horn or gong or other warning instrument while the carriage is on any stand, or when kept waiting for a passenger when on hire.

33. The flag attached to a taximeter shall be kept in a vertical position, and the Indicators at zero when the carriage is disengaged.

34. The driver shall lower the flag attached to a taximeter to the recording position when the carriage has been engaged and the hirer has had a reasonable time to take his seat (provided that if from any cause whatsoever outwith the hirer's control the driver is unable to start the carriage, the flag shall be at once lowered to or placed at the non-recording position, and remain in that position until the carriage has been started on the journey, when it shall again be raised or put to the recording position), and during the whole course of the journey the flag shall be kept at the recording position. On the completion of the journey, and while the passenger is in the act of paying the amount of fare recorded, the driver shall lower, put, or place the flag to the third or "stopped" position, so that the meter shall cease to record. He shall not raise the flag to the vertical position until the hirer has examined, or has had an opportunity of examining, the taximeter and the amount of fare recorded.

35. Should the taximeter record a fare higher than is clearly in proportion to the mileage covered, the driver shall not be entitled to exact or demand more than the legal fare by distance chargeable under these Bye-Laws, and in case of dispute the distance shall be ascertained from the Table of distances appended to the Hackney Carriage Bye-Laws. The like fare shall be exigible should the taximeter stop recording during the journey.

36. In the event of the mechanism of the carriage breaking down, or in any way becoming unfit to convey the hirer to the destination for which the carriage is engaged, the driver shall not be entitled to charge any fare for the distance already travelled, provided that, should the hirer elect to wait until repairs are completed, the full fare recorded on the completion of the journey shall be exigible, less the amount of fare chargeable for waiting, in accordance with the rate for waiting fixed under these Bye-Laws.

37. A driver shall not permit a passenger or any unlicensed person to drive the motor carriage. Provided that, with the permission of the Registrar of Police, a "learner," though not licensed as a driver, may, when and so long as accompanied by a licensed driver, drive the motor carriage when not hired.

38. A driver who is only licensed to drive a carriage drawn by animal power shall not drive a carriage propelled by mechanical means, and no proprietor shall so employ such a driver.

39. No driver shall demand or receive, over and above his fare, any sum for, or by way of, back fare for the return of his carriage from the place at which it is discharged.

FARES.

40. It shall be in the option of the hirer to engage any motor hackney carriage, either by time or distance, provided this is done at the time of hiring (but if by time the fare shall be the subject of special agreement). Instituted 1854.

For the promotion of temperance by the combined agencies of education, recreation, and restoration.

Agencies:—Domestic missions, medical lectures, Saturday evening concerts, Sabbath evening lectures, and convalescent home, Kilmun.

Domestic missions are carried on in Gorbals and Garscube road districts. The female missionaries, by house to house visitation, and through mothers' meetings, cookery and sewing classes, bands of hope, and Gospel temperance meetings, seek to instruct the ignorant, reclaim the fallen, and promote the temporal and spiritual well-being of those living in these poorer districts of our city.

The Saturday evening concerts were started in 1854 as a counter-attraction to the pernicious influence of the public-house, and for sixty-seven years they have continued to exercise a wholesome and elevating influence in the community, and have contributed in no small degree to the cultivation of a higher taste for, and appreciation of good music.

Medical lectures are arranged at which the facts and experience in reference to the effects of alcohol in health and disease are dealt with by some of the leading medical men in the city.

Sabbath evening lectures for advocating the claims of temperance and urging the Christian duty in regard to the drinking customs of society.

A large staff of male and female missionaries, drawn from the various evangelical denominations at home, and a much larger staff of trained native ministers and teachers, carry on its work in Africa, India, China, Polynesia, &c. This sum has been practically all used in relieving the poor, only £122 10s. 10½d. having been required for working expenses, i.e., stationery, &c. The Society holds no property or investments. Its income is derived entirely from voluntary contributions, and is expended as received for the relief of the poor.

INSTITUTED MAY, 1858.

Scottish branch office, St. Enoch Station, Glasgow. Committee of management in Scotland—Chairman; D. Cooper, Esq., Glasgow & South-Western Railway; J. Ballantyne, O.B.E., Esq., Caledonian Railway; J. Calder, Esq., North British Railway; J. C. Christie, Esq., North British Railway; C. E. Cockburn, Esq., Glasgow & South-Western Railway; G. Newlands, Esq., Highland Railway; R. Park, Esq., Highland Railway; C. H. Stemp, Esq., O.B.E., North British Railway. Bankers, National Bank of Scotland (St. Enoch Square branch).

This institution, which has no political objects, is officially recognised by the Railway Companies and managers and by their chief officers, affords a channel for those who sympathize with railway servants through which to help them in the time of need, and the extent of its sphere of usefulness depends in a great measure upon public support.

During the Great War 186,475 railwaymen in Great Britain and Ireland joined His Majesty's Forces, and of these 18,957 made the supreme sacrifice for the country, the number of wounded and missing being proportionately heavy.

Throughout the War all grades of railwaymen rendered splendid service, without which victory would have been impossible—the successful transportation of troops, munitions, stores, foodstuffs, &c, not only at the several theatres of operation, but at home, being essential.

At the present time, owing to want of invested funds, the continuance of the allowances of upwards of 1,400 recipients is dependent upon the income from the generous public being maintained, while the resources of the Institution require to be increased to enable cases of new qualified applicants to be favourably entertained.

Since the establishment of the Institution in 1858 over £1,500,000 has been distributed, assistance having been rendered to 214,668 persons, as under:—6,750 widows of men killed; 24,248 widows of men dying of sickness; 178,695 men injured by accident; 4,248 men disabled by old age and other causes; 727 children and other dependents incapable of earning their living, and also incapacitated women employees, and in addition to these, 6,061 widows and disabled servants have received pensions of from £5 to £30 per annum; and 2,647 children of both sexes have been educated and maintained.

At the present time 2,721 widows and members are receiving annuities which alone involve an annual liability of £43,572, and 368 children are being reared, trained, and educated in the Orphanage at Derby and at other schools at a cost of upwards of £15,000 per annum.

Donations and subscriptions.—A donation of £105 in one sum or in payments of not less than £10 10s. each, constitutes the donor a patron or patroness for life, with the privilege of fifteen votes. A donation of £52 10s. in one sum, or in payments of not less than £10 10s. each, constitutes the donor a vice-president for life, with the privilege of six votes. A donation of £10 10s. constitutes the donor a life subscriber, with the privilege of one vote. A yearly payment of £1 1s. (or in quarterly or half-yearly instalments) constitutes a subscriber, with the privilege of two votes. An annual subscription of 10s. 6d. constitutes a subscriber, with one vote. Any three donors or subscribers may also recommend applicants qualified for relief from the special benevolent fund.

Appeal.—The Scottish committee of management respectfully and earnestly appeal for aid to the shareholders of railways individually, as specially interested in those upon whom devolve the executive duties in their railway establishments, and to the benevolent of all classes, who are either directly or indirectly benefited by the services of a numerous, well-disciplined, and laborious class of public servants. Donations and subscriptions will be gratefully received and duly acknowledged by the secretary for Scotland, John Dickie, Glasgow & South-Western Railway, St. Enoch Station, Glasgow.

GLASGOW DISCHARGED PRISONERS AID SOCIETY,

28 Cathedral Square.

The Rt. Hon. the Lord Provost, chairman; John A. Reid, City Chamberlain, hon. treasurer; Robert King, hon. secretary; R. M. B. Colquhoun, superintendent; Miss Marshall, missionary to females.

193,916 men and 102,275 women, in all 296,191 discharged prisoners and convicts have been dealt with by us since March, 1889, at which period the directors inaugurated a change in the method of their operations among this unfortunate class of our criminal population. Our handsome building in Cathedral Square for the reception of the discharged prisoners and convicts has now been occupied by us since 1896, and its close contiguity to the exit gate of the Duke Street Prison makes it peculiarly suitable for the objects pursued by our Society. Every prisoner on discharge is personally invited to our hall, where a hearty breakfast of coffee with an ample supply of bread and butter is provided for them. After family worship every one of this large number is conversed with, and the name and the charge against him, with the sentence, entered in our books. The Society adopts the plan of securing remunerative employment for every man who is disposed honestly to accept it. To this course we steadily adhere, and the result is that since 1889 30,838 men have been placed in various large industrial works in the city and neighbourhood. In 1920 work was found for 469 men.

Admission to Rescue Homes is procured for those women who desire to break with their old courses.

The institution consists of:—(1) an hospital at Yorkhill, near the University, containing 204 cots, which was completed in 1914, opened by their Majesties the King and Queen in Jnly of that year, and now takes the place of the old hospital in Scott Street, which contained 74 cots, and was fonnded in 1883. In the wards of the new hospital abont 5,000 children are treated each year, and in addition nnmerous ont-patients are seen and treated in the admission department of the hospital; (2) an ont-patient department or dispensary at 11 West Graham Street, opened in 1880, where over 12,000 cases, involving about 40,000 attendances, are treated per annum; and (3) a country branch of the hospital at Drumchapel, Dumbartonshire, opened in 1903, containing 26 cots, where about 100 chi'dren reqniring somewhat prolonged treatment are cared for per annum.

Patients, who mnst be under 12 years of age, are admitted to the hospital in order of nrgency. Accident cases and cases of urgency are admitted to the hospital at any hour, by day or night, without a recommendation by a snbscriber. Other snitable cases recommended by qnalified subscribers are admitted to the hospital as arranged by the Medical Snperintendent, when there is available accommodation, between the hours of 12 and 1 every forenoon (except on Snndays). The dispensary is open every forenoon (except Snnday), from 10 to 11, for the reception and treatment of children nnder 12 years of age who are sick and poor and are not suffering from infectious disease. Recommendation by a subscriber is not required to secnre advice and treatment at the dispensary. The country branch is used for special cases sent from the hospital. Visitors to patients in the hospital are admitted on Sundays from 2 30 to 3.15, or if they reside in the country on Satnrdays at the same honr. Visitors to patients in the country branch are admitted on Satnrdays from 3 to 4.

The hospital, dispensary and country branch are all supported by voluntary contribntions. Snbscribers are entitled to recommend one patient for every £1 1s. snbscribed.

Snbscribers and others interested and desiring to see over the hospital may do so on Tnesdays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays from 2 to 4 o'clock, but Wednesdays and Satnrdays are the most convenient days.
